MEMORANDUM FOR: Members of the Intelligence Research and Development Council

SUBJECT: Two Reports

1. The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence has asked that the Council prepare two reports for his consideration. The first is to deal with how emerging technologies may enhance our imagery processing and exploitation activities, while the second is for us to project how we may apply technology advances

TASK #1

SUBJECT: Technology Advances for Imagery Processing and Exploitation (S)

DISCUSSION: The DDCI has asked the IR&DC to prepare a report containing recommendations regarding what technological advances may be forthcoming which may be used to enhance our imagery processing and exploitation activities. In the preparation of this report, consideration should also be given to how emerging technologies may be optimized. [REDACTED]

METHODOLOGY: Under the aegis of the Council, Mr. Leslie C. Dirks will take the lead in the formation and administration of a working group to prepare this report. Membership in the group will include representatives from CIA, DIA, Army, Navy, Air Force, DARPA, USDRE, and the IC Staff. (S)

COMPLETION: The draft report should be available for presentation to the Council for consideration by the middle of October, with the final report due to the DDCI by the end of October. (U)
